13	Oregon Humanities Project: What is Cultural Appropriation? 6:00-7:30pm. Issues of cultural appropriation and identity are complicated. Power dynamics influence who benefits from certain cultural experience, and—given the global nature of our world—parts of our individual and cultural identities are shaped by cultures other than our own. How do we make sense of this and what effect does it have on us as individuals and as Oregonians? Facilitator Surabhi Majahan will lead us in a conversation to explore cultural appropriation beyond who’s “allowed” to wear certain clothing or cook particular foods.
14	Coos River History Tour: 9:00am-4:00pm $$/CHM members only. There is limited seating and pre-registration is required. Join Bill Mast, Anne Guerin and Bob Mahaffy for a bus tour along the Coos River, which includes lunch and multiple stops. More details TBA.
